DPW SUPERINTENDANT REPORT: Chris Clark has just started looking at Truck 2 today due to illness. The fuel tank in truck 6 sprung a leak and needed a costly repair. Scrap metal prices are high. The crew is crushing old culverts and taking the old water meters apart. We are going to take the scrap to George Moore. The County has not released the prices for paving. We will make plans once they release the prices. The Pooler lots brush has been cleaned up.
